- 61. The first thirty days will pertain to the Junior classroom curriculum. The second thirty days will pertain to perfecting a short basic layer cut on customers. After the sixty days probation period, if the student is then retained, they will return to the Junior room to learn longer hairstyles and further techniques.

The above rules will be adhered to fairly, but rigidly, what is fair for one should be fair for all. We believe that if students know what is expected of them they will try their best to do what is good for all.

1st.	Offense	Oral warning
2nd.	Offense	Written warning
3rd.	Offense	3 day suspension
4th.	Offense	30 day suspension
5th.	Offense	Termination

Bear in mind the nature of the infraction. Arguing with another student may follow the above guidelines, arguing with an instructor could escalate to the 3rd offense, if you argue with the owner it could go straight to the 5th. Offense :(same words, same actions, different repercussion)

If you have a grievance, follow the chain of organization chart, talk to your immediate instructor, if not satisfied then go to the senior instructor, then the school owner, if they formulate the same end result, re-evaluate your grievance.

I completely understand Rule #61 concerning my first 60 days in school.

SCHOOL GRADING SYSTEM

Test and Grades:

... Can help you become a better student and a better hair designer. Throughout your training, you will take written and practical tests. These tests are designed to sum up the unit of learning you've just completed. A low grade, even a failing mark, doesn't mean you should give up. It tells you that you need to review the last few lessons. Your instructors can help. Go over the test with them and make sure you understand the ideas and techniques covered. You are also tested on barber laws, customer safety precautions, and TDLR Board.

Mock State Board Exams will be given at each level of progression, exactly as required by State Board. The tests will help you to prepare for the State Board Test and spotlight essentials of good shop/salon practices.

Your financial aid will not be affected if the incomplete is corrected as stated. If the incomplete is not corrected as stated, you will be placed on probation at the end of the evaluation period. See PROBATION below.
2. If you wish to change programs, you must get approval from the DBSC Director. The Director will determine the amount of credit that will be given for the previous work completed (if any). Your financial aid will be recalculated, and a determination will be made to either increase or decrease the eligibility depending on the type of course change.

The second time that you fail to meet one or more of the requirements, you will no longer be making satisfactory progress and you will be ineligible for financial aid for the following evaluation period.

APPEALS PROCEDURES

If you are determined to be ineligible for financial aid because SAP requirements were not met, you may appeal this decision to the Director of Financial Aid by indicating in writing the reasons why the minimum academic/attendance requirements were not met, and why aid should not be terminated.

The Director of Financial Aid will review the appeal and determine whether the suspension from aid is justified. You will be advised, in writing, of the decision.

To re-establish satisfactory progress once you have been terminated from aid, the SAP requirements must be improved to meet the designated standards.

POLICY FOR GRANTING A LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- The request for a leave of absence must be in writing, and must clearly specify the reason for submitting the request. In order for the request to be approved, there must be a reasonable expectation that you will return from the leave of absence to continue your education.
- You may request multiple leaves, but they are not to exceed 180 days within a 12-month period,
- No additional institutional charges are generated during the leave, and
- Upon student's return, student is allowed to complete coursework started prior to the leave.
- DBSC does not participate in the loan programs, but if you previously had a loan that is now in deferral status, the failure to return from the leave of absence may affect your loan repayment terms, including the expiration of your grace period.

Unless you do not return, an approved leave of absence is not a withdrawal, and you do retain in-school status. For a borrower (in deferral status) who does not return from an approved leave, the grace period starts retroactively to the date the leave began.

You may take a leave of absence for not more than a total of 180 days in any 12-month period, if you have an approved leave of absence. The 12-month period, begins on the first day of your first LOA. DBSC may allow one additional approved leave (not to exceed 30 days) for unforeseen circumstances. Additional subsequent leaves may be granted for jury duty, military reasons, or circumstances covered under the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993. Unforeseen circumstances may include:

1. Birth of a child and the need to care for the child,
2. Need to care your spouse, child, or parent, if the person has a serious health condition, or
3. If a serious health condition makes you unable to function as a student.

To qualify for an approved leave of absence, you must submit in writing your request for leave. The leave of absence document must be completed, giving the reason for the request, the date the LOA is to begin, and the date the student is expected to return from the LOA. The LOA request form must be signed and dated by the student and DBSC's Director.

PROCEDURE TO ADMIT ABILITY TO BENEFIT STUDENTS

Our procedure follows the guidelines of The Federal Compilation of Student Financial Aid Regulations (34CFRsec668.147).

This subpart sets forth the provisions under which a student who has neither a high school diploma nor its recognized equivalent may become eligible to receive Title IV program funds.

- (1) Achieving a passing score, specified by the Secretary of The Department of Education, on an independently administered test approved by the Secretary
- (2) An institution may use the results of an approved test to determine a student's eligibility to receive Title IV HEA program funds if the test was independently administered and properly administered.
- (3) The test administrator has to be certified by the test publisher.
- (4) The institution shall maintain a record for each student who took a test under this subpart
 - a. The test taken by the student
 - b. The date of the test
 - c. The student's scores as reported by the test publisher.

Once we determine that the student has neither a High School Diploma nor its recognized equivalent, we will set up an appointment with the certified test administrator, to schedule, and administer the test.

If the certified administrator tells the student and staff that he/she passed the test. Funds still cannot be disbursed until positive documentation from the test publisher is received by the school.

The school is unable to enroll more than 50% of its annual student population count from the ATB compilation list.

If a student obtains a GED they can be subtracted from total count of ATB students.

All enrolled students has to follow the same guidelines and restrictions, they are treated and graded the same.
